

American Indian Spirituality

- Understanding American Indian Spirituality
- Pastoral Care for American Indians
- Ceremonies and Beliefs

An Unforgettable Seminar!

- Learn why and how ancient sacred ways are relevant to contemporary North, Central and South American Indians
- Learn ways to develop rapport with indigenous people in a pastoral setting

- Learn about Manataka, the Place of Peace.
- Participate in a healing ceremony
- Receive a free American Indian Spirituality booklet

Your Presenters

	Lee Standing Bear Moore, Kituwah Spiritual Elder, storyteller and historian of the Manataka American Indian Council; editor of the Smoke Signal News, author, and lecturer.		Fred D. Wilcoxson PhD, PC, BCCC, Osage/Cherokee; Pastoral Care at Health Central Hospital, Certified by College of Pastoral Supervision and Psych, Member of Manataka		Scott A. "Silver Eagle" Fleming, Cherokee/Creek; Intern Chaplain, Health Central Hospital; Indian Lore, Traditional Dancer, Advisor to Indian groups, Ceremonialist, Member of Manataka
---	---	---	---	---	---

Manataka® American Indian Council
 612 Shady Heights Road
 Hot Springs National Park, AR 71901-9292
 501-627-0555
 manataka@sbcglobal.net
 http://www.manataka.org

Preserving the past today for tomorrow